

Free aged care translation service

The Australian Government funds a translation service to help aged care providers communicate with older people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.

Aged care providers can use this free service to produce translated versions of print and digital materials in different migrant languages, as well as 'Easy Read' or 'Easy English' translations.

This service is available free of charge for government-funded aged care providers, peak bodies and Partners in Culturally Appropriate Care (PICACs) across Australia.
