RETIREMENT LIVING

St Peter's Green

St Peter's Green is a place you can call home

You may be thinking of moving and in search of a place to call home. Your happiness and wellbeing is at the forefront of what we stand for. Whether you are downsizing, searching for convenience, or wanting to build new friendships, we can support you.

St Peter's Green is a stunning boutique retirement village located in Sydney's beautiful and leafy lower north shore. The village offers 27 spacious and stylish apartments complemented by elegant open plan living, security parking and private storage as well as café and children's playground. It is also within close proximity to public transport, the local library and village green. Village life is overseen by the resident committee who work in partnership with the village manager to ensure that St Peter's Green runs smoothly for the benefit of all.

We work towards creating a warm and inviting space that caters to your personal and social needs by offering the opportunities to participate in group outings and activities.
